

What is a GHAD?

A GHAD is a public agency that allows property owners to group together and mitigate geologic hazards.

It works to protect you and your property.

About Your Leona Quarry GHAD

- Formed in 2002
- Financed through supplemental homeowner property tax assessments
- Managed by ENGEO Incorporated

For more info visit:

www.leonaquarryghad.org

Your GHAD Board of Directors (BOD)

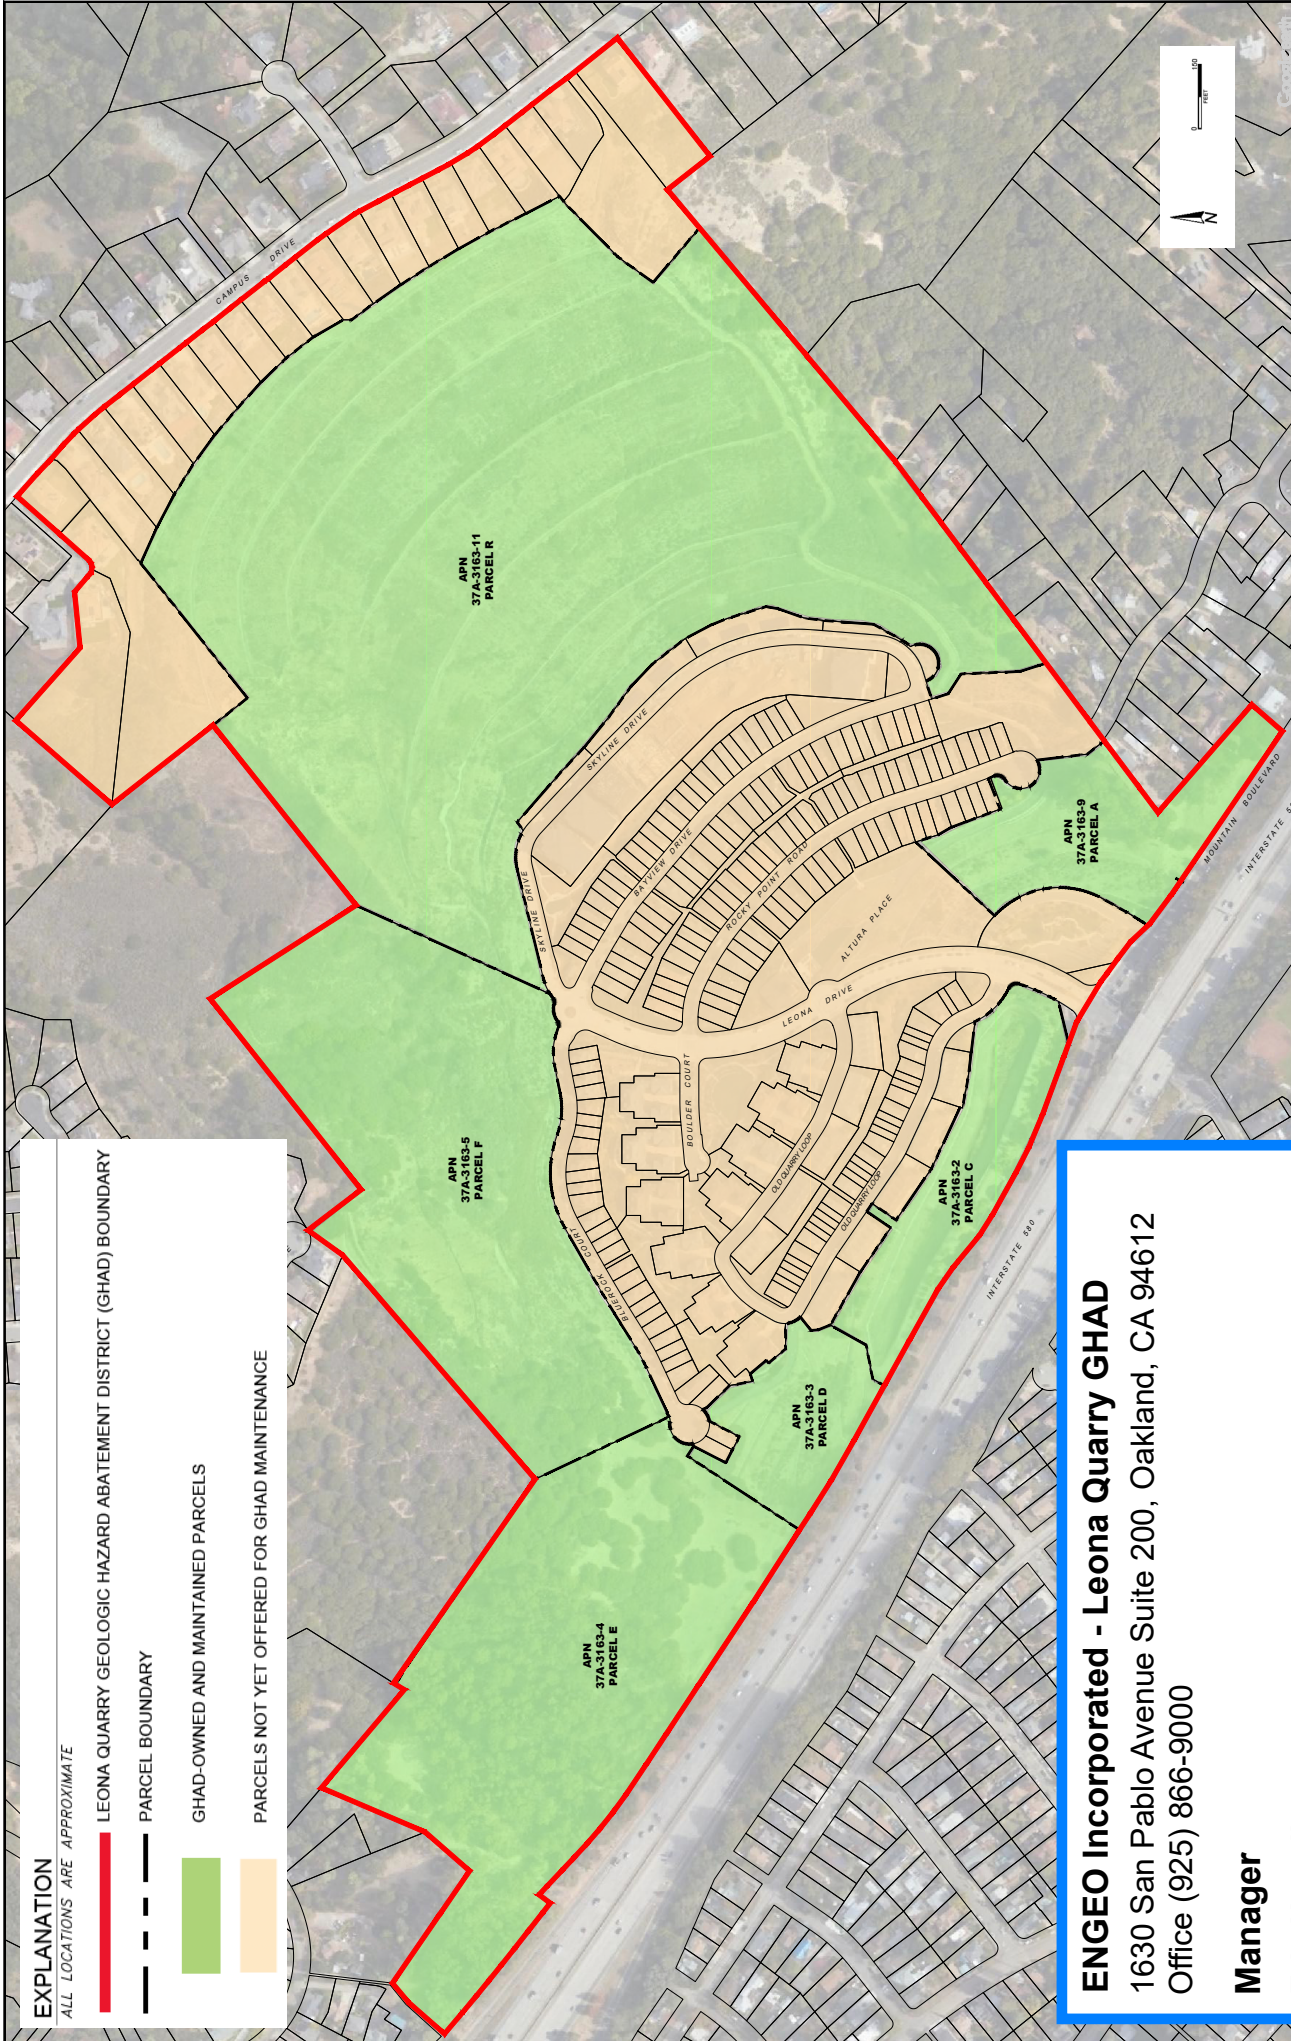

The Leona Quarry GHAD BOD comprises members of the Oakland City Council, who are

- Chair Loren Taylor
- Boardmember Rebecca Kaplan
- Boardmember Dan Kalb
- Boardmember Nikki Fortunato Bas
- Boardmember Lynette Gibson McElhaney
- Boardmember Sheng Thao
- Boardmember Noel Gallo
- Boardmember Larry Reid

GHAD Duties

- Prevention, mitigation, abatement, and control of geologic hazards
- Monitoring and maintenance of storm drain systems, detention basins, and slopes
- Emergency response for significant earth movement events

EXPLANATION

ALL LOCATIONS ARE APPROXIMATE

- LEONA QUARRY GEOLOGIC HAZARD ABATEMENT DISTRICT (GHAD) BOUNDARY
- PARCEL BOUNDARY
- GHAD-OWNED AND MAINTAINED PARCELS
- PARCELS NOT YET OFFERED FOR GHAD MAINTENANCE

ENGEO Incorporated - Leona Quarry GHAD

1630 San Pablo Avenue Suite 200, Oakland, CA 94612
 Office (925) 866-9000

Manager

Eric Harrell

Direct (925) 395-2547, Cell (925) 786-5579,

E-Mail: eharrell@engeo.com

Haley Trindle

Direct (925) 230-9544, Cell (909) 373-5457

E-Mail: htrindle@engeo.com